The Imperial Wizard Sues
Keeping Out Prosperity
Two Names That All Know
How Many Is "A Few?"
By Arthur Brisbane
(Copyright, 1935)

Colonel William Joseph Simmons, more widely and probably known as "Imperial Wizard" of the Ku Klux Klan, will sue for $1,000,000 a newspaper that says he is in the Ku Klux business for base profit. To be a Ku Klux you must pay $10 and take your oath. Nothing unusual in that except the cheapness.

According to the sued newspaper, the object of the Ku Klux is "extermination of Catholics, Jews and negroes." That is quite a program.

As regards the Jews, it has been tried without extermination by various agencies for more than two thousand years, but it always dies out and the Jews go ahead. The Jews explain their survival by the fact that they are a chosen people. Common sense explains it on the ground that they are a thinking, persevering people.

Italian workers in thousands are returning to Italy to wait for good times to come back here. When they came away the lira was worth 20 cents. Now it is worth one-quarter of that amount. They will live in luxury on their savings over there. One dollar is worth twenty lire.

The Jewish welfare organization is raising one million to divert Jewish immigration to South America now that it is shut out here under the new immigration laws.

The loss of Italians going away and of Jews excluded is among the really big ideas that this country is sustaining, although wise statements do not know it. Since Portugal and Spain drove out the Jews, the only places where Jews are still being welcomed are Holland, then England welcomed the Jews, and prospered as they have never done.

A million more Jews here would mean more prosperity for everybody. They do not want money, they want wealth and values. And when they have made money they put it in circulation. They make and they spend. They understand distribution, production, and export from their mental contributions to a country's greatness. They are the only ones who can increase its business and industrial activity.

Under the new American Jewish immigration that would have been here is to help South America and injure this country's growth.

Mr. Fatty Arbuckle and Mr. Charlie Chaplin figure in the news. With those two gentlemen, it is only necessary to announce their names. If you have 10,000,000 readers, more than 9,999,000 will know all about Arbuckle.

There are gathered in New York city the most famous of the world—and if you printed all their names, not one would be recognized or identified by a percent of your 30,000,000.

Arbuckle and Chaplin, comedians, clowns, only teach—and the world is in the amusement phase. You know it, when you read of thousands, swelling police records from wild admiration.

Chaplin reminds you of the versatility of the Jewish genius. He and Sarah Bernhardt are the most extreme of stage work, are both Jews.

Mr. Arbuckle sheds, as is appropriate, a humorous side light on our magnificent prohibition. He is in San Francisco, at the request of the police, to explain the unfortunate death of a young lady.

It was simple, according to Mr. Arbuckle. Friends—three of them—called his hotel room. "I was having my breakfast when the trio entered. We had a few drinks. Shortly after Miss Raper had a few drinks, she became hysterical and began to tear off her clothes. She was disrobed and put in a bath.

Convinced by this attention, the lady died, and the police had two questions. How many is a "few" drinks, and, how many is a "few" friends? The police are in a dilemma. They are not sure of the number of the alcohol that circulated in alimony?

"For fifty dollars I can have any man in New York killed," said the late "Big Boy" Sullivan, popular statesman, explaining to this writer why he introduced his bill to forbid owning pistols, and to eliminate the constitutional provision which gave the right to bear arms. In New York yesterday a professional criminal confessed to twenty murders. Thirty dollars is a fair price for killing among the "professionals."

It is a comparatively safe proposition. For every detective who tells you that it is difficult, usually impossible, to identify a murderer, when there is no personal motive in the killing—"who hated the dead man," the detective usually asks, then, did the murderer in the bath?

When killing is done for profit, in instantly, the crime remains mysterious. All London's detectives never could find Jack the Ripper. He had no personal motive in his killing.

Raid on Food Supply Starts Revolt in White Russia

By Associated Press.
London, Sept. 12.—White Russia is the scene of an insurrection against the Soviet authorities, says a Warsaw dispatch to the Daily Mail. The trouble began, it is said, as a result of forcible food looting by the Bolsheviks. The inhabitants of this section of Russia fought to protect their supplies, and the insurrection is declared to be spreading.

Would Change Audit System; Asks Help for War Cripples

Six important messages with orders for appropriations were forwarded to the City Council by Mayor Peters today.

"It is very desirable," says the Mayor, "that the city appropriate the sum of $100,000 for use of widows and children of Patriotic War Veterans. The sum was recently killed in the previous year's budget. I recommend the immediate passage of the accompanying order."

Under the provision of section 27 of the General Laws, it is possible for the city to do this, charging the amount to the reserve fund.

The Mayor recommends a change from the present system of city auditing from the cash receipts and payments to the income and expenditures basis. This means that the bills of one year shall all be included in the financial statement of the year.

Under the present system, the Mayor is authorized to make a change in the system of accounting.

The Mayor also asks for a change in the system of accounting for the city's expenses.

HAIFA EXPLOSIONS

People Flee Homes, Fearing Repetition of Harbor Tragedy in 1917

Haifa, N. S., Sept. 12.—The explosion of five tanks of the Imperial Oil Company's plant at Dartmouth, on the east side of Halifax harbor, early today with rumblings and shock that were felt in this city, caused the evacuation of half the homes of Halifax.

Those who had gone through the explosion of December, 1917, when the munition ship Mont Blanc blew up and wrecked a third of Halifax with a loss of 1,200 lives, thought it was another such disaster. When the explosions were over, however, the fire subsided, all indications were that there had been neither loss of life nor serious injury.

FAIR WEATHER TUESDAY TO FOLLOW SHOWERS

More showers, to be followed by fair weather tomorrow, were predicted by the weather man today.

The official forecast for tomorrow, Tuesday, generally fair, moderate south, shifting to north-west, with a few showers.

Who is ready to speed to the aid of the accused man and aid him in his fight to escape the gallows.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 12.—Is the actress Minto Durfee, known in private life as Mrs. Roscoe Arbuckle, to become a lady errand, rushing to the defense of her knight in distress?

This would appear from a telegram, received today at Arbuckle's home on West Adams street here. The message from the comedian's wife said that she was prepared to speed from New York to give "Fatty" all assistance possible.

Arbuckle's secretary, when given the details of the case, said that Arbuckle had been married within the last few months. She said that he and Minto Durfee were still married. It has been rumored that after he had a success on the screen, "Fatty" told his wife, when she had been played at Long Beach, that he was "through with her."

SOCIETY HAPPENINGS OF GREATER BOSTON

Hundreds of Fashionables Return from Europe

By BETTY ALLEN.

At present society is as much interested in the return of its many members from foreign shores as anything else. Each week hundreds of Americans, who could not resist the temptation of even a few months abroad, are returning to this country, ready for the busy social whirl which the winter always brings. France, by the way, seems to have been the most popular of the European countries among the throngs of touring Americans. Whether the classic battlefields or the fashionable shops of gay Paris, or yet the seven gayest watering places of the country constituted the chief lure, it is hard to say. At any rate, many a French storeroom and innkeeper has managed to feather his nest very nicely these last summer months—all due to the invasion of the many and wealthy Americans.

Among these of the elite who have recently reached native shores are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dexter of Marlboro street, who went over early in June. The Dexters, I hear, are to go back to their Manchester villa for a stay before opening their town house.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradlee, who sailed in July, are back at their Chestnut Hill house. Mr. and Mrs. William Endicott of Marlboro street are also returning after their summer abroad. The William Lindseys of Tay State road are coming back after a winter and two summer absences on foreign shores. The main part of their time the Lindseys spent in London, where they had an apartment, but as they also had an apartment in the gay French capital, not a little of their time was passed there.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Winsor of Weston were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. de Grandfort of New York at "Orchard Hill," their Brookline villa. Other guests of the de Grandforts were Conway Felton and Frederick Allen, both Harvard men, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wadsworth Buck of Park avenue, New York.

Miss Dorothy King, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tarrant Clark of Adams street, Milton, will be one of the bridesmaids at the after fall wedding of Miss Katherine Williams Parker and Mr. Tapanis Davis, Francis of Brookline. The wedding will take place on October 3 in the Unitarian Church, Jamaica Plain.

$4.20 BOOST IN TAX RATE FOR QUINCY

Big Increase Due to Raise in Salaries of Teachers, Firemen and Police

Quincy's tax rate for 1921 will be $28.40, Mayor William A. Bradford announced today. This is an increase of $4.20 over last year's rate. Mayor Bradford stated that the increase was largely due to increases in the salaries of school teachers, firemen and police, which went into effect January 1, before he took office. The total valuation this year showed $18,464,745, an increase of $1,862,325, mostly industrial.

Attention, Housewives!

$25 in groceries and provisions will be given FREE, every week, to women of Boston and New England for the "Most Typically Boston Recipe."

This is a call to all the cooks of Boston!

The Boston American seeks a collection of Boston recipes.

Send in your best one!

Tell us exactly how you prepare your best dish; the one you like best; the one your husband prefers; the one the children talk about.

For the best recipe sent to us each week, the Boston American will give an order for $25 worth of groceries and provisions. For every other recipe, which appeals to the judges and for which room for publication is found, the Boston American will pay an honorarium of One Dollar.

Twenty-five dollars in groceries or provisions, remember, for the Best Boston Recipe of the week; One dollar for every other recipe we print.

The Rules of This Cookery Contest Are Few and Simple

1—In sending your recipe either attach a sales slip, not more than one week old, from the establishment of some dealer in foodstuffs—grocery, market, delicatessen—whose advertisement you see in the Boston American during the current week or write the name and address of the store on the same sheet with the recipe, if the dealer does not give sales slips.

2—Write upon one side of the paper only.

3—At the top of the sheet write plainly your name and address.

The winner will receive an order on the store whose sales slip or name and address is attached to the prize recipe for $25 worth of groceries and provisions.

Please give special attention, for a minute, to Rule 1. It does NOT mean that you must buy all or any of the things called for by your recipe from a Boston American advertiser or from Boston American advertisers. You may never have bought a single one of them in these places. Your recent purchase from a Boston American advertiser may be of any foodstuff, in or out of your recipe. It may be for fifty cents or for ten dollars; the amount is not important. The Prize Boston Recipe Contest has a three-fold object. We want (1) for the information and instruction of all our readers, the best recipes we can get from (2) Boston American cooks who (3) trade with Boston American advertisers.

So mothers, sisters, aunts, housekeepers, send us without delay that recipe for which you are famed among friends and kinfolk, but be sure to send along with it a sales slip not more than one week old from some establishment, dealing in foodstuffs, whose advertisement you find in the Boston American during the current week or the name and address of the dealer if he does not give sales slips.

And suit yourself about the kind of recipe you select. It may be that your baked beans are famous. John, your good man, may boast that his wife's baked beans "can't be beat" even in Boston. Perhaps there is something special in the way you prepare them. Tell us about it.

Or, possibly it is your brown bread, or your New England boiled dinner.

Pie! There's a typically New England, typically Boston article. Which is your best pie? How is it done?

Or it may be cake. It may be any of the thousand things New England women—Boston women—make better than any other women anywhere in America.

And by "Boston," of course, we mean "Greater Boston." The sales slip will tell the story. If you reside within trading distance of Boston American advertisers we shall assume—for the purposes of this contest—that you are a Bostonian.

Begin today reading the food advertisements in the Boston American. The current week's sales slip or the name and address of any grocery or provision dealer advertising in the Boston American entitles you to compete.

Recipes will be printed and prize winners announced as early next week as the selections have been made. Watch for them on the Magazine Page of this newspaper.

Send in YOUR best Recipe today with sales slip attached or name of dealer.

All entries for the Best Boston Recipe should be addressed to

PEACEFUL PREPARATION! This is the U. S. S. California, the latest type of dreadnaught, in drydock at San Francisco. Notice how big the jacksies at the bow do not look. (Int.)

HOOKWORMS FOR BAIT! Dr. Maurice Hall will have these soon. Is leading exterminator of lastness worms, and has devised new method. Has been blacklisted by parasite leagues. Is senior zoologist of Animal Industry Bureau. (K.)

THEA COULDN'T VAMP THE BREEZES, so the airplane in which she was hopping from N. Y. to Atlantic City had to light in the bay. Miss Bar was picked up, though, for a passing motorboat. (K.)

SAVE THE PENNIES, ETC. Frank Woolworth did some of year, probably—and now he's not worrying. This grotesque of Frank counting change is on the wall of the great entrance to the Woolworth Building in New York. (K.)

MISSIONARY HONEYMOONERS! Mrs. J. H. Wiley and husband, just wedded, sailed with a group of missionaries, who will carry the gospel through China. They left Seattle on the steamer Hokuyo Maru. (Int.)

DON'T CATCH COLD IN THE WATER! If it rains put up the umbrellas. They did that at Coronado Beach, Cal., survey, and the fresh race put all the other contests in the shade. Great idea for the thin-thatched. (U. & U.)

AIN'T THEY GOT FUN? Three English maids on the beach at Bournemouth like a little exercise with their bathing. Don't know what the name of the game is, but it's vigorous enough, certainly, and likely to have black and blue results if the handsome hurler happens to trip. (U. & U.)

LOOK OUT FOR ROLLING PINS! If Miss Gerson starts looking 'em, hubby will gas out. She's champion woman shot-nutter of Germany and has plenty of nuthins. (U. & U.)

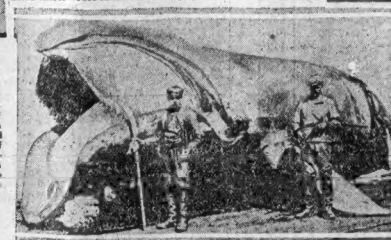

H-2-O AND EVERYTHING! Miss Pilar Herrera will be the country's first woman professor of chemistry. She gets her degree in the Fall from Columbia. First Filipino ever to be graduated there. Test tube served. (K.)

TRY THIS WITH YOUR VICTROLA! Just one of the floor-swing dances that N. Y. society girls startle friends with. This is the grape season, so the costume is easy. Josephine Corne Waddell is the high demerol. (E. & H.)

SET FOR A MERRY P. M.! This is what they call a Glyn afternoon frock of black Canton crepe, trimmed with white silk material, semi-brodered in black. Who would have heeled it? (W. W.)

A GREAT SKIN GAME! One of Jonah's little playmates is just having the covering removed at a whaling station in Christiansia, Norway. Then they get after the oil, which is being sold in England. Two hundred and fifty thousand casks have already been exported by one firm. (W. W.)

NOT SO GOOD! Don't imagine this rig will make much of a hit with the girls, although Doris Backwell, San Francisco artist, likes it. Just the style of scenery worn by middle-class Chinese women. Doris says it's comfortable as well as economical, but who cares about little things like that? (Int.)

MUSCLE SHOALS DEEPER, SAYS HARGOOD

Asserts Nitrogen Plant Sale
Question Is Bigger Than Any Group of Interests

By NORMAN HARGOOD
(Chief Correspondent of the Boston American.)

Washington, Sept. 12.—While so many manufacturers are losing sleep thinking how they can keep prices up it is instructive to review the psychology of the most brilliant of American manufacturers, our Jew-hating friend, Henry Ford.

Before the war came along to upset nearly every good tendency in the world Henry was possessed of a dream. It was to sell a Ford car, a tractor and a truck, all for a total price of a thousand dollars. That is the kind of a dream to have. Henry would have realized it by now, probably, had the world postponed its experiment in scientific post-war conditions pending, indeed, he may do it yet.

DELET RIGHT.
Several months are likely to elapse before the details of the Muscle Shoals contract are thrashed out. But in the end, say somewhere around the first of January, it will be, as far as a public announcement is now, accepted by the government.

This deal is a silver-right deal, as far as it is to have a person of Ford's genius demonstrating efficiency in needed planner work. It is necessary also to consider every source from the public standpoint. Good trading in behalf of the government is desirable, providing the effort is to reach a fair agreement and not to block an agreement in favor of competing interests.

The principal propaganda in favor of the Ford contract is being carried on by the farmers and by the business interests located along the Tennessee River. But the question is much bigger than the locality or than any single group of interests.

NITROGEN IMPORTANT.

When you fill your lungs with air, four-fifths of each breath is nitrogen. When you decide what to eat, nitrogen is an important element in a nourishing and balanced diet.

The principal component of nitrogen is saltpetre. Taking the whole earth together, a good deal of saltpetre is used up in a year. Yet, if you draw a line around any one-point on the surface of the earth, you will have above it as much saltpetre as has gone into the earth's supply of saltpetre for the whole year.

In other words, saltpetre is lacking in spiritual wisdom. It is concentrated in the air above you in an unlimited supply of this important product. The German war effort to get saltpetre out of the atmosphere, but we did not move until the war forced us to do so.

We boast about our heroic production and are delighted with our overgrown little income. It is more wisely, modern war effort enables our population a double in sixty-five years. From 1910 to 1920 population increased 17 per cent.

FARMERS' INTEREST.

What was our first supply doing meantime? During the same ten years our crops increased only 10 per cent. The farmer's interest in getting nitrogen fertilizers out of the atmosphere has been a waste if we wish to continue to push up our population and also to good results.

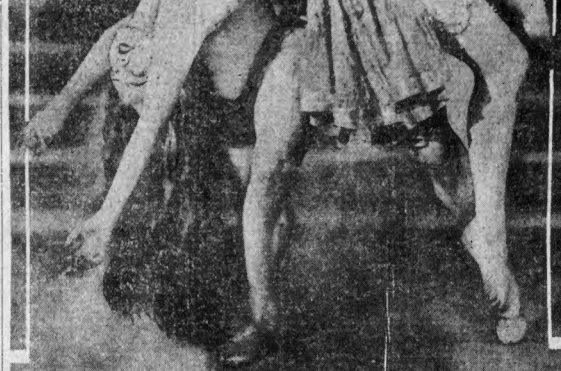

Let us go back to the last normal year, before the war ballooned everything up. In that year, Britain raised over seventy bushels of oats to the acre.

Germany, with a bad natural soil, raised over sixty. The United Kingdom, over forty; Italy, Austria and France, over thirty.

The United States and Russia brought up the rear, both with less than thirty. Or take potatoes in the same year—Belgium raised nearly three hundred bushels per acre, the United Kingdom and Germany over 250, the United States considerably less than one hundred.

Now that is a question of soil-culture, mainly of fertilizers and the principal fertilizer is nitrogen. And the greatest nitrogen possibilities in the world are at Muscle Shoals, in Alabama, on the Tennessee River, and that is what the rumormongers about. The water-power goes with it. No water-power, no great nitrogen production. There are other aspects to the water-power question, new and difficult, for before the youngest of these words is dead, he will have moved from New York to San Francisco by water-power. But the secret of the Muscle Shoals controversy that is now close upon us is the question of saltpetre.

Mary McDonag and her equally famous husband, Doug Fairbanks, are in the city tonight.

A special welcome at the local level was extended to the two principals by the committee provided entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks occupied a box with Mayor and Mrs. Peters, former Mayor James M. Curley and Miss Marianne Goddard, who later rendered a fine operatic number and off-dressed songs during the intermission at the approved request of "Our Mary."

DANCING ORGY A FEATURE OF 'MECCA'

Fokine Ballet in Stupendous
Production Is Alluring
Stage Spectacle

Tonight.
"Mecca" at the Boston Opera House, the most stupendous stage production the world has ever seen. Morris Getz, producer, declares he has brought the mighty production from New York with the original cast and the great Fokine ballet.

The censor last season ruled that artists performing in an artistic ballet were not bound by the rules laid down for chorus girls in musical comedy. The Fokine ballet in "Abderrahman" danced with naked limbs.

work of Fokine. Never was such an orgy of dancing and posturing. Thirty of the most beautiful dancing girls in New York were trained for months by Michael Fokine himself to make the "Mecca" ballet. These girls wear costumes which are both exquisite and daring. Their limbs have never known a shoe and stocking.

The scene of the ballet is laid in a ruined palace in Egypt. The theme is the ancient rites in the worship of the Goddess Isis. It occurs on a gigantic staircase, probably the heaviest and most massive set ever constructed on the Boston Opera House stage.

REINCARNATION OF EVE.
The premier danseuse is Martha Lorber, the girl with the perfect figure. Miss Elinor Glyn, who saw "Mecca" many times and who was so rapt with it, declared Miss Lorber a reincarnation of Eve herself, as she first appeared to Adam.

"But she is not," declared Miss Lorber, "I am a reincarnation of Eve herself, as she first appeared to Adam."

There are more than three hundred people in the mighty production, including more than a hundred and fifty chorus girls. The splendor of the passing scenes, the grandeur of the music, the magnificence and opulence of the costumes create a description.

TARIFF CHANGE WISSECTION, SAYS BARRON

Declares Business in No Position to Stand for Further Experiment

Clarence W. Barron, publisher of the Boston News Bureau and the Wall Street Journal, today declared the American valuation plan as provided in the Fordney tariff bill, to be "a bad piece of legislation."

He said at a time when neither business, the public, nor the world in general is in any position to stand for further vivisection, or experimentation.

In an exclusive interview with the Boston American, the widely-known economist pointed out the disadvantages such a procedure would have on business and the cost of doing business, and the cost of living.

"The measure has passed the House of Representatives and is now before the Senate, and tremendous pressure is being brought to bear upon Congress to kill the American valuation provisions in the bill."

CONSUMERS MUST PAY.
"Will the proposed American valuation plan increase the cost of living?" Mr. Barron was asked. His answer:

"Only as it increases government expense, litigation and the cost of doing business."

"Very few people realize the high cost of doing business in this country and the narrow margin that is left for manufacturers and distributors."

"To make valuation boards of appraisers for the thousands of articles that may pay duties at the seaboard is to increase the government expense of collection at a time when the cost of living is increasing for reduced government expenses."

The Fordney bill, which increases the expense of collection. It must also increase the cost of doing business. For every uncertainty and added risk the consuming public must pay in the end.

BAD FOR SMALL DEALER.
"There is cheap living when there is cheap production, cheap transportation and cheap distribution. Every interruption, every legal snarl, every government antagonism, every dispute and every uncertainty adds to the consumer's cost."

Answering the goods on fluctuating home market valuations will tend to drive the small dealer out of business and put the large importing combinations in control of trade.

Such combinations of business and capital can import when the market is low and hold the goods in store for a higher market. Then when the market is up they can get the high prices from the consumer and nobody will dare to import against them, however low may be the prices abroad, they will have to pay much higher duties.

Also, when the competitor's goods arrive, the big importer can raise prices until his competitor's duties are paid and then sell at a profit where his competitor cannot.

"Under the big dealer or combination can buy cheap goods abroad and sell them at four times the Canadian border and when the bankers sell out the small importer, who has been ruined by the high duty, the market will be low and the new goods can come in over the border or from foreign ports, pay the cheap duties and again be held in store for a rising market."

"Business men are engaged in a game of warfare against the United States tariff. The tariff is the biggest part of money can take the tariff."

"This is a democratic, un-American and unfair where justice should be a fair consideration."

3 HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT IN WEYMOUTH

South Shore Searched for Big Car That Hit Smaller Machine and Ran

Police of South Shore towns today are seeking a large automobile which yesterday crashed into the smaller car belonging to Clara L. Alden of Park street, South Weymouth, turning it upside down and inflicting injuries to Alden, his wife and son Arthur.

The big car is reported to have sped away after the collision without waiting to see what had happened to the occupants of the smaller car. It is said to have gone in the direction of Plymouth.

The accident happened on Main street, South Weymouth, and passing motorists heard the groans of the three occupants of the overturned car and immediately rushed them to a local hospital. They were said to be painfully though not dangerously injured.

SOME MEN HAVE SUCH HAPPY DISPOSITIONS THAT THEY NEVER AMOUNT TO MUCH

SHA WKYE MUST HRL AT RICHARDS' PITCHES BEST FOR YANKES TO WIN, SAYS RUTH

By BABE RUTH

New York, Sept. 12.—With a long stretch of games on the Polo Grounds before us, the Yankees are going to make their final rally for the flag. Friendly surroundings may do a lot for us, and the advantages of living at home, eating home food and sleeping in our own beds will probably help. However, there are many things to accomplish before we qualify to battle the National League champions.

New York will win the pennant on three factors: First, the batting of Bob Meusel and myself, and the pitching of Bob Shawkey. This may seem like a broad statement, and the fans may ask, what of the other men on the club. Needless to say they will have to go along at their best clip just as they are going now, but I must improve, if anything, and Meusel must not allow himself to fall into any slump.

If the fans could look back over the last couple of games the Yankees have lost, they will see that neither Meusel nor I were hitting. It was that way in Boston when the Red Sox tossed me off for a couple, in the games we won. Meusel was hitting, and I got two, one a run-scoring triple. Meusel was a home game on Labor day. Meusel got a long home run in that game, and I got a home run in the ninth inning, much too late to do any good.

Bob Shawkey will have to pitch better than ever before in his life. The Yankees have been in bad luck in the last few games. It is a mean pitcher and that he throws everything he has into every delivery. When he is going good no club in the country can beat him, unless, of course, the Yankees become congested mentally and just kick away a ball game. We have done that a little thing too. But with Shawkey in there, say every fourth day, and Bob is not against going in there. If the interests of the club can be served, we will have a big ace in the hole.

Carl Maye is at his best, and when that underhand serve of his is breaking right the other team might just as well throw down their bats and take refuge in the White House. Carl has been in the game for a long while and he was favored by veteran hitting and few scoring runs. He was a cunning coach to keep the opposition in check. He would like to see new words about Harry Harper, however, who pitched a home run against Washington and showed that he is in the game. At the Polo Grounds this week he came back and threw the Red Sox. He may have a game now, but he will win only if he can win.

100,000 IN WILD RIOT AT SOX-YANKS GAME

New York, Sept. 12.—In one of the wildest double-headers ever played on the Polo Grounds, the Red Sox yesterday held the Yankees to an even break and, for a time, threatened to win two games from the American League leaders.

The crowd which attempted to see the double-header was perhaps the most remarkable that ever tried to force its way into a ball park in New York or anywhere else. It was estimated by the police that 100,000 fans tried to reach the Polo Grounds. About forty thousand gained admission.

The big hope of the crowd was to see Ruth break his home run record and hit his fifty-fifth. But the fans were disappointed, as Boston's pitcher, Walter Johnson, was not hit by a home run in his career. The Sox walked four times in the game.

Joe Judge's speed ball was too much for the Yankees in the first game, and he was supported in great style, especially by Foster. He won his game by the margin of 2 to 1, leading his seventh straight victory.

Ruth simply solved the Sox problem by refusing to let Big Babe hit the ball. He walked Ruth three times, getting over only one strike out. The slugging in the first, third and fourth frames.

However the Yankees sprung one of their famous rallies in the eighth inning and suddenly began smashing their offenses all over Boston's pitcher. Miller, Pack and Ruth knocked out hit singles. Babe and Meusel followed with a home run each into the right field stands.

A wild scene followed. All the away fans which had been saved to be sacrificed in celebration of Ruth's fifty-fifth home run, were hurled into the arena, along with cushions, newspapers, more cash or anything the fans could get their hands on.

The Stamp
HAIL, busy little postage stamp, by whom all writers agree you take their work for many a stamp on journeys here and there.
They trust you with important little things will bring them famous editors' mail "all the way" and others "pretty tame." But still they're still another time, they're never satisfied; they gladly send you, long time to you they wait a rise. Though many a copy every mail and bring it safely back; With loving care, you're vowed; their letters waiting a pound and when fun Cupid works the rough, you're the one to rouge. So hail! Pale stamp on crimson hue and heed my earliest rose, for what will all these poems mean, what hope of prosperity? When two-cent stamps shall sell for three, what of the love lost, and where will all these fair loves be when the goosepenn pen? And so we'll beg the power manac, you take much verse to three, to sadden simple souls."
